17. CONFLICT RESOLUTION

The School Council shall abide by the Conflict Resolution Procedures outlined in the school board's policies and regulations. If none exist, the School Council shall apply every effort to resolve internal conflicts using the steps outlined in these Operating Procedures.

From Red Deer Public Board policy 6.04.01

15. In the event of an irresolvable conflict between the principal and the school council, the principal or the school council chairman may refer the matter in writing to the Superintendent of Schools. Should the Superintendent of Schools be unsuccessful in resolving the dispute within a period of 21 days following receipt of a referral, the Superintendent will place the matter on the agenda of the next private meeting of the Board of Trustees, together with his recommendation. The decision of the Board of Trustees will be final.

A. If at any time, ten (10) parents, or fifty per cent (50%) of the Executive Committee members of the School Council are of the opinion that the School Council is in a state of conflict such that its operation is significantly impaired, they may deliver a written request signed by them to all School Council members, and the following will apply:

- 1) The Chairperson will call a Special Meeting of the School Council.
- 2) The Secretary will provide a minimum of five (5) days' written notice to all parents and School Council members of the date, time, place and purpose of the Special Meeting.
- 3) At the Special Meeting, all parents and School Council members present will have an opportunity to hear and discuss the issues causing conflict.
- 4) On motion, seconded by any parent or School Council member present at the Special Meeting, a vote shall be held respecting a proposed resolution to the conflict.
- 5) If the combined majority of parents and School Council members present vote in
